

WHAT DO YOU CALL A CAFÉ HOUSED IN A CRASFTSMAN-ERA
BUNGALOW THAT'S NESTLED IN THE GREEN HEART OF HOUSTON'S MUSEUM DISTRICT AND AFFORDS VIEWS OF A RENOWNED MODERN LANDMARK?

IT'S UP TO YOU!

FOLLOWING LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE SELECTION OF GREG MARTIN AS OWNER AND OPERATOR OF THE MUSEUM'S CAFÉ, THE MENIL COLLECTION INVITES THE PUBLIC TO PLAY THE NAME GAME.

HOUSTON, TX, October 17, 2013 — The café, which will occupy one of the early-twentieth-century bungalows that surround the museum, will welcome visitors to the Menil's 30-acre "neighborhood of art". Renovated by the award-winning Houston firm of Stern and Bucek Architects, the structure stands in the very spot originally selected by the museum's architect, Renzo Piano.

Greg Martin, who will operate the café, has been prominent in Houston since the 1980s as a leading chef and restaurateur, best known for his work at Café Annie, Taco Milagro, and Café Express. His culinary career has been shaped by his years in Houston and his extensive travels throughout the United States and Europe.

To help us name this exciting addition to the museum, the neighborhood, and the city at large, please send your suggestions to CafeNameGame@menil.org by Monday November 25th.

The Menil will announce the name on Monday, January 6, 2014. The prize: A table for two at a V.I.P. preview luncheon.
